

ROOTED

COVENANT

It is our desire to promote a safe environment for sharing the most important things in life. We want to provide a place where people can reveal openly and confidently the broken areas of their lives without judgment or condemnation. We are not here to “fix” one another. We encourage openness, vulnerability, and intimacy during discussion and prayer times. In order to ensure a safe haven for personal sharing, we ask that each Rooted participant enter into an agreement of confidentiality.

To get the most out of this experience, our hope is that you make a commitment to attend all sessions and participate in the group discussions. If you cannot be there, group dynamics will be impacted. If you know you will miss the group meetings more than two times, we ask that you have a conversation with a member of the Formation Team to discern whether this is the best season for you to commit to Rooted.

While everything in this group is confidential, according to Indiana law*, we do have a duty to report abuse or neglect of a person whether they are a child or an adult.

In addition, information may be shared with ministry leaders solely for the purpose of resource recommendations, accountability, discipleship, or for legal or safety reasons.

I agree to attend group meetings and will keep all things shared by my group members confidential.

*Everything in a group is to be kept confidential, but according to Indiana law[1], we do have a duty to report abuse or neglect of a person whether they are a child or an adult. If you feel like harm is going to happen to any individual let a leader on staff at The Creek know. In addition, information may be shared for the express purpose of resource recommendations, accountability, discipleship, or for legal and safety reasons.
