

Show Me Your Glory

July 28 | Weekly Devotionals

Introduction:

Welcome to this study of the Old Testament where we are exploring the nature and character of God. Our foundation passage for this series is Exodus 34:6-7: "And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, 'The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished...'"

Our hope with this series is that you come to grow in the grace and knowledge of the one true God. To accomplish this, each week you'll be prompted to work on memorizing Exodus 34:6-7, reading Scripture passages that correspond to that week's highlighted characteristic of God, answering a couple reflection questions, and praying.

Let's dive in!

Memorize Exodus 34:6-7.

Take a few moments to continue committing Exodus 34:6-7 to memory.

Read Scripture.

For your Scripture reading, you can either do this in one large chunk or in smaller segments. The passage this week is on Ruth and Naomi and we're looking at how God was compassionate to them in the midst of hardship. In one sitting or spread out into smaller segments throughout your week, read through ALL of the book of Ruth.

Reflection Questions:

- How did you see God's compassion to Ruth and Naomi in this book?
- How have you seen God's compassion towards you in your own life? How has that shaped you in your love for God and your love for others?

Pray:

Pray to God in response to both the Scripture and reflection you spent time with.
