

Daily Devotionals: With Jesus at the End | March 27, 2022

Leading up to Holy Week, we'll be giving you Matthew, Mark, and John's renditions of Jesus' final moments to pair alongside of Luke's account of Jesus' final days. This week, we're leaning into being with Jesus during his final meal.

As you begin, start your readings for this week with a simple prayer for clarity and understanding. Ask God to reveal Himself to you through your reading. Next, read the weekly Scriptures slowly. Take some time to process what you've read. What's going on in these passages? What would it have been like to have been there? What would you have seen? Smelled? Who was present? What would you be feeling as you looked on? Reflect on what it teaches you about God's character through Jesus himself.

Reflect on your reading throughout the week and let it settle into your heart and change you from the inside out.

- Read Matthew 26:17-30
- Read Mark 14:12-31
- Read Luke 22:7-38
- Read John 13-17

Note: Some of these passages are a little longer. Don't feel like you have to get through it all! These are here in case you have the time space to fully lean in. If you can't do all the reading, that's okay!
