

Show Me Your Glory
June 30 | Weekly Devotionals

Introduction:

Welcome to this study of the Old Testament where we are exploring the nature and character of God. Our foundation passage for this series is Exodus 34:6-7: "And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, 'The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished...'"

Our hope with this series is that you come to grow in the grace and knowledge of the one true God. To accomplish this, each week you'll be prompted to work on memorizing Exodus 34:6-7, reading Scripture passages that correspond to that week's highlighted characteristic of God, answering a couple reflection questions, and praying.

Let's dive in!

Memorize Exodus 34:6-7.

Take a few moments to begin committing Exodus 34:6-7 to memory.

Read Scripture.

For your Scripture reading, you can either do this in one large chunk or in smaller segments. The passage this week is on Adam and Eve, specifically looking at how God has been gracious to them so we can get a better grasp of how God is gracious to us. In one sitting or spread out into smaller segments throughout your week, read through Genesis 1-3.

Reflection Questions:

- How did you see God's grace to Adam and Eve in these chapters?

- How have you seen God's graciousness to you in your own life?

Pray:

Pray to God in response to both the Scripture and reflection you spent time with.
