

Weekly Work | November 5 & 8
God Moves in Power through Generosity

Overview
The sermon series "God Moves in Power" is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we'll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God's ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we're invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the Book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week's Reading
This week, we read that in the early Church people actually sell their possessions and bring the proceeds to the church to care for those in need. Barnabas, with a heart to encourage, gives generously and leaves a legacy of faithfulness and sacrifice (in contrast to the deceit and pride of Ananias and Sapphira). How might we be called as a church into ever more generosity?

- Acts 4:32-5:11
- Luke 21:1-4
- Mark 10:17-31
- 2 Corinthians 8:1-9 and 9:6-15
- 1 Timothy 6:17-19

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?
